WHO WE ARE

Our Mission

THE VISION

"To become the proof — across every state we enter — that veterans, seniors, and working families are not the housing market's afterthought but its frontier, and to set the standard by which dignified development and investor-grade returns are measured together."

THE MISSION

We design, build, restore, and manage housing for veterans, seniors, and working families to a standard the luxury market would recognize — financed through partnerships that prove this work is the most disciplined deal flow in American real estate.

M&M Realty is the Delaware-based developer building the housing America has structurally underserved — veterans communities, 55+ residences, and affordable family homes — to investment-grade standards. Unlike firms that treat these segments as ESG line items or community-development concessions, M&M underwrites them as primary thesis: the most disciplined, most enduring, most defensible deal flow in the asset class.

RM

Ronald Martin

FOUNDER & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Ronald Martin brings more than 30 years in real estate, contracting, construction, renovation, and development. He founded M&M Realty to put that field experience behind one thesis: the families the housing market overlooks deserve homes built to the standard the luxury market expects.

02

MM

Michelle Martin

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Michelle Martin leads operations at M&M Realty, turning each project plan into a schedule, a budget, and a finished home.

03

Curtis Stephens Jr.

CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Curtis Stephens Jr. is a six-year U.S. Army veteran, including twelve months on the Korean DMZ, and a former owner-operator in commercial trucking. He leads M&M's brand and keeps its message as disciplined as its underwriting.

MODEL PROJECT

Renovate, Hold, and Build

Our underwriting model pairs two strategies on one site: restore an existing building as rentals, and build new cottages for 55+ and veteran buyers. Cottage sales pay down the construction loan; the rentals carry what remains.

What remains.

01

8 Renovated Rentals

An existing building restored in two phases. Target rent of $1,550, about 10% below the Delaware average of $1,732.

02

4 New Cottages

Built for sale to 55+ and veteran buyers at $350,000, below the Delaware median of $401,000.

03

$2.5M Total Cost

Financed at 75% loan-to-cost. Cottage sales retire most of the loan, leaving a small permanent loan on the rentals.

THE M&M STANDARD

How We Build

Four phases, each governed by one of our four non-negotiables.

PHASE 01 · UNDERWRITING AS HONESTY

Underwrite

Every project starts in the spreadsheet, not the showroom. We set vacancy above the market rate, rent below the market average, and stress-test every line before a dollar moves.

If the numbers cannot defend the deal, we walk. Capital is a trust we will not mislead.

MARKET DATA | STRESS TESTING | CAPITAL PLAN | GO / NO-GO

PHASE 02 · CRAFT AS CONTRACT

Build & Restore

Cosmetic wins fail year five. We spend where it matters first: structure, systems, and envelope.

Renovations and new construction are held to the same structural standard, because the promise is the same.

STRUCTURAL REVIEW | SYSTEMS FIRST | PHASED RENOVATION | NEW CONSTRUCTION

PHASE 03 · DIGNITY AS DEFAULT

Finish

Every home, regardless of price point, finished to a standard we'd offer our own family.

Market sets price; never dignity.

FAMILY-GRADE FINISHES | ACCESSIBILITY | VETERAN & 55+ DESIGN | FINAL WALKTHROUGH

PHASE 04 · COMMUNITY AS CAP RATE

Manage

We hold and manage what we build, so the work does not end at closing.

A neighborhood we leave stronger compounds returns no spreadsheet can model.

PROPERTY MANAGEMENT | RESIDENT CARE | LONG-TERM HOLD | COMMUNITY TIES
